God Gave Me You

```
Dave Barnes
Key = A
Tempo 76
Intro : D A F#m E (x2)
Verse 1:
             Α
                             F#m7
                                            Ε
 I've been a walking heartache, I've made a mess of me
                              F#m7
                 Α
 The person that I've been lately ain't who I wanna be
                   Α
                               F#m7
 But you stay here right beside me watch as the storm goes through
           DΕ
  Bm
And I need you
Chorus 1:
                                   F#m7 E
                      Α
God gave me you for the ups and downs
                                    F#m7 E
God gave me you for the days of doubt
For when I think I've lost my way
                                        Bm7 D E
                              Ε
There are no words here left to say, it's true, God gave me you
Interlude :

Verse 2:
                                         F#m7
                         Α
 There's more here than what we're seeing, a divine conspiracy
                           F#m7
D
 That you, an angel lovely, could somehow fall for me
D
                                      F#m7
 You'll always be love's great martyr, I'll be the flattered fool
              D E
And I need you
Chorus 1
Bridge :
F#m
                     D
  On my own I'm only half of what I could be
             E
I can't do without you
  We are stitched together and what love has tethered
Α
I pray we never undo
Chorus 2:
                                       F#m7 E
God gave me you for the ups and downs
                                       F#m7 E
God gave me you for the days of doubt
                                       F#m7 E
God gave me you for the ups and downs
                                       F#m7 E
God gave me you for the days of doubt
