

Week 6 Quiz

Started: Apr 10 at 12:14pm

Quiz Instructions

This quiz covers Marshall pp. 58-64, Marshall Ch. 6, and the Ethic of Care lecture.

Question 1 1 pts

There are three elements to moral injury. Which of the following is not one of those elements?

betrayal

legitimate authority

situation of great weight

Imago Dei

Question 2 1 pts

Soldiers and veterans experience moral injury when they perform a duty that is contrary to conscience.

True

False

Question 3 1 pts

Generally speaking, moral injury and post-traumatic stress disorder are the same thing.

True

False

Question 4 1 pts

When one violates one's conscience, whether in the performance of duty or in the madness of war, the natural image of God is diminished.

True

False

Question 5 1 pts

Moral injury is not so much the result of one dramatic event, but the erosion of one's moral fiber over time.

True

False

Question 6 1 pts

According to Marshall, the moral life requires more than principles.

True

False

Question 7 1 pts

Theologian Reinhold Niebuhr tells us that the first question in conflict analysis is always, "What's going on?"

True

False

Question 8 1 pts

H. Richard Niebuhr is credited for establishing "responsibility ethics."

True

False

Question 9 1 pts

The Responsible Self: An Essay in Christian Moral Philosophy was written by

H. Richard Niebuhr

Reinhold Niebuhr

Thomas Aquinas

Ellen Ott Marshall

Question 10 1 pts

H. Richard Niebuhr has identified features of responsibility. Which of the following is not one of those features?

Response

Interpretation

Honesty

Accountability

Question 11 1 pts

Care ethics stems primarily from the work of Carol Gilligan.

True

False

Question 12 1 pts

Gilligan identifies two voices. Which two of the following are those voices?

Voice of justice

Voice of care

Voice of fairness

Voice of respect

Question 13 1 pts

The Ethic of Care recognizes that moral progress is both cognitive and emotional.

True

False

Question 14 1 pts

The Care ethicist knows it's not always appropriate to do what everyone thinks they need from you.

True

False

Question 15 1 pts

Carol Gilligan's theory of care ethics emerged from her disagreement with the moral development theory of Jean Piaget.

True

False

Question 16 1 pts

Which of the following are central ideas of the Ethic of Care as described by Rita Manning?

Relationship awareness

Sympathetic understanding

Accommodation

All of these

Question 17 1 pts

The Soul Repair Center was established at the Brite Divinity School.

True

False

Question 18 1 pts

A criticism of moral philosophy made by feminist ethicists is that traditional moral philosophy assumes a male moral agent.

True

False

Question 19 1 pts

In Gethsemane, Jesus is aware of the needs of those around him while the disciples are gripped by fear.

True

False

Question 20 1 pts

According to Marshall, competing, collaborating, avoiding, and accommodating are the four choices we have when we dealing with

Ethics

Conflict

Philosophy

Evil

Quiz saved at 1:04pm