

[Verse 1]

C# F# D# G# C#
When I made my start for heaven, I could only find one way.
C# F# D#m7
The road that led me through the mountains, and through the valleys.
G# C#
The road not many folks could take.
C# F# D#m C#
Since I started traveling on my journey
G# C#
I've covered many, many miles behind me.
C#m7 F# A#m G#m7
Miles of sun and rain, miles of smiles and pain.
F#m G#7 C# F#m7 B7
The roads been rough but I again would choose the same.

[Chorus]

E G#7 A F#m7
Long and winding road keep on leading me.
B7 F#m7 B7 E
F#
Up ahead I see a sign that points me, straight ahead, to victory.
B E B E D A
F#m7
I know I must be traveling right for I remember passing Calvary.
B7 F#m7 B7
F#m7
And although it's dusty, and it's old, for years its bore the traveler's load.
B7 E D#m7 G#7
Someday this road will turn to gold.

[Verse 2]

C# F# D#m7
There are some times, when the rocks hurt my feet.
G#7 C#
My body burns from the sweat and the heat.
C# F# D#m7
My strengths completely drained and my face marks the pain
G#7 C#
My back is bent from the strain
C# F# D#m
I could turn around, that road is still there,
G# C#
but every mountain that I climbed I again would have to bear.
C#m7 F#7 A#m D#7
I really can't turn back, someone may be using my tracks.
F#m G#7 G# C#
F#m B
I see one more bend and that just might be this road's end.

[Chorus]

E G# A F#m7
Long and winding road keep on leading me.

B7 F#m7 B7 E
F# B7
Up ahead I see a sign that points me, straight ahead, to victory.
E B E D A
F#m
I know I must be traveling right for I remember passing Calvary.
B7 F#m7 B7
And although it's dusty, and it's old, for years its bore the traveler's load.
F#m7 B7 E D
Someday this road will turn to gold.
A E
And for some, this road's already turn to gold.
